WALDO REGAINS PRESTIGE

C. L. HARRISON'S CRACK COLT AN EASY WINNER IN FLATBUSH STAKES.

His Owner Announces After Race That the Colt Will Go Into Retirement Until Next Season Sweep an Absentee.

New York, September 4.—Waldo rehabilitated himself with the race-going public at Sheenshead Bay today. Twelve thousand devotees of the sport cheered him on to victory in the twenty-sixth running of the Flathush Stakes. Eight coits and fillies elected to try conclusions in this famous juvenile fixture, including Waldo, Grassmere, Dalmadian, The gerona. The last named pair were added at the eleventh bour. Notwithstanding his preceding defeat by selling platers, Waldo was the storm center of speculation on the race and closed a strong favorite at 6 to 5. He justified the confidence of his backers by striding into a commanding position immediately after the start. It was supparent that he can be added to the confidence of his backers by striding into a commanding position immediately after the start. It was supparent that he can be complete measure of his opposition. The Fad led him for five furlongs on sufferance. When Grand relaxed his tight pull on the reins Waldo bounded to the front in a twinkilm; and the race was over as far as first money was concerned. C. L. Harrison announced after the race that the supparent of the complete measure of his opposition. The splendid-looking Dalmatian, as big and Justy as a four-year-old, and with all the earmarks of a champion, came from the rear in cyclonic fashion to finish a good second to Waldo. His last half-mile spirit was so sensational that some experts went so far as to claim superiority for him over Waldower the Futurity hero's absence from the race. Nearly everyone believed that he would be an added starter. James R. Keene explained that it had been his Intention to start Sweep in the Flatbush, and that but for a slight attack of distemper, as evidenced by a running at the nose this morning, he would have done so.

JAMES BUTLER'S PROSPECTIVE VENTURE.

THE OCEAN HANDICAP WINNERS

It often happens that the intent of the founders of a stake race is never fully met. In the case of the Ocean Handicap it was hoped that it would be a race in which the mile record would be established and held, yet none of its winners has ever come close to a record in its running. It is not because it has not been contested by fast horses for, in respect to speed, Domino, Henry Young, Briar Sweet, Imp, Voter and Hermis have no superiors in the history of American racing and the other winners of the race could, every one of them, get over the ground at a rapid rate, 1:38% by Ten Candles, Tipton and Half Sovereign is the best that has ever been done in it. In its entries this year the Ocean has great speed possibilities, with at least six horses fully capable of breaking the mile record if at their best and, with conditions favorable, they being Uncle, Maskette, Jack Atkin, Fitz Herbert, King James and Olambala. The record of the race is:

KENTUCKY BREEDERS ARE ENCOURAGED.

Results of Yearling Sales in East Pleasing-Few Left to Be Sold-I. H. Wheatcroft's Plans.

Lexington. Ky.. September 4.—Reports of the thoroughbred yearling sales at Sheenshead Bay this week brought encouragement to a great many Kentuckians who are engaged in the breeding of race borses or whose occupations and business are largely dependent upon horse racing. The reports have likewise been a source of gratification to those optimists, few as they were, who foresaw, as a result of the efforts of reformers and politicians to destroy the sport of racing, the ultimate elimination of an undesirable element and the rehabilitation of the sport, together with its dependent industries, upon a more stable basis than has yet marked the history of the turf in America.

The market for race horses is an index to the condition of the turf, just as the market for the staples of commerce affords an index to the general condition of the nation, the country and the world. When there is a demand for race horses, the belief must onevail among the buyers that there will be racing to give them occupation. This belaf, as indicated in the sales ring at Sheenshelds, as indicated in the sales ring at Sheenshelds and acts of important persons in important racing centers. The sign of the times is plainly more and better racing. The man who finds enjoyment in racing has now little cause for fear as to the future. The silver limits to a dark cloud should now be visible to the most pro

SOCIETY OUT AT BLUE BONNETS.

Opening of Montreal Jockey Club's Fall Meeting Successful Despite Unfavorable Weather.

Successful Despite Unfavorable Weather.

Successful Despite Unfavorable Weather.

Montreal, Que., September 4.—The third annual fall meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club began today under unfavorable conditions. A drizzling rain set in before noon and this had its effect on the attendance. The patronage, however, exceeded by far the expectations of the management and enough people were present to crowd the grandstand and betting enclosure. The rain had but little effect on the track and the going remained good throughout the afternoon. A splendid program had been arranged and keen sport was witnessed, four of the finishes being close. Class was represented in a majority of the races and, as the last four winners were well backed favorites, the public were well satisfied with the afternoon's entertainment. This, in a measure, made amends for the disagreeable climatic conditions. One of the noticeable features of the afternoon was the support given by the soften and the support of the afternoon was the support given by far the largest that ever turned out at Blue Bonnets. Racing in Montreal evidently is growing in favor with the better element and the Club is making every effort to attract this class of people to its course. The stables that came here from Saratoga captured a majority of the purses with horses that had been freshened up at the Spa. Colonel Phil Chinn furnished two of the afternoon's winners in Great Heavens and Joe Gaitens, both of which were well backed choices. The former captured the Laurier Handleap the feature race of the card while Joe cup was presented six the club to the owner of the handleap winner and Colonel Chinn did himself proud in his speech of acceptance. Great Heavens showed a smart performance in the race and was well ridden by Musgrave. The latter kept the columbarked choices. The former captured the Laurier Handleap the feature showed as the final stride to backed for make his move at the turn out of the backstretch Great Heavens dashed around his field and was soon on even ter necks apart, with Lady Irma fourth, another head away.

The steeplechase proved little more than an exercise gallop for Thistledale, which outjumped and outran his field for the entire distance. The other two starters, Zagg and Merry Maker, managed to finish only after a strenuous trip. Merry Maker refused at two of the jumps, while Zagg unseated his rider at the seventh fence. The Bedwell stable failed to arrive from Fort Eric in time to participate in the racing and its entries were scratched.

Jockey Herbert rode two winners, G. M. Miller and Edwin Gum.

GOVERNOR HUGHES IS ON THE ALERT.

Sends Message to Sheriff Habley, Who Replies There Has Been No Violation of Law at Bay.

There Has Been No Violation of Law at Bay.

New York, September 4.—Governor Hughes, through Assistant Secretary Curtis, sent Sheriff Habley of Kings County the following telegram this morning: "It has been reported to the governor that the antibetting law is being violated at the Coney Island Jockey Club track. You will take the necessary action to suppress this violation," Sheriff Habley's reply by mail was as follows: "Reports that the betting law is being violated at the Sheepshead Bay race track are unfounded. There is no money passed between men and so-called bookmakers. As a matter of fact, there are no lookmakers. As a matter of fact, there are no lookmakers. W. J. YOUNG TO SELL MOQUETTE.

New York, September 4.—William J. Young has decided to put his Ben Holladay four-year-old, Moquette, and his Ogden two-year-old filly, Louise S., in the Sanford sale. Perhaps as many as a dozen smartly-bred New York horses will be offered by the Sanfords. General Sanford was not pleased with the showing his stable made at Saratoga and he wants to make room for the yearlings of this season.

FORT ERIE MEETING ENDS

CHANGING TRACK CONDITIONS BRING UPSETS ON CLOSING DAY.

Barney Schreiber's Sager Wins Stake Feature of Card at Bong Odds-L. A. Johnson Takes Down Two Purses.

Buffalo, N. Y., September 4.—Racing for this season terminated at Fort Erie today under conditions rather adverse for the sport and which marred what otherwise might have been the banner day in point of attendance in the history of the track. A steady track conditions, accounted for frequent unsets and depleted the originally small fields. Many of the carded starters were handicapped by the going a net value of $1,150, went to the extreme outsider. The Iroquois Hotel Stakes, for two-year-olds, having a net value of $1,150, went to the extreme outsider. Sager, which ran in remarkably improved form over previous essays. The disappointments of the race between them. The choices were not serious factors in the running. Forez took command soon after the start and led until passed by Sager in the last furlong. Forez had no difficulty to retain second place. Ere White retired from serious contention early and had to be driven hard near the end to outstay the added starter, Good Intent, for third money.

San Francisco, Cal., September 4.—Jockey Merritt Buxton, the California boy who went to Russia last spring, is meeting with success in the land of the car. In a letter to his father, young Buxton says that he has ridden as many as three winners in a day, and that he and his brother Clarence are getting along well. Buxton is under engagement to Jack Keene, the American who is training a big string for various prominent Russiaus. Keene has thirteen two-year-olds in his string. The California had has a good offer to ride in England next year. His present contract will expire October 25, and his father expects that the two Buxton brothers will return home at that time two Buxton brothers will return home at that time two Buxton brothers will return home at that time to bux of the recomplete to his father. Jack Keene and Joe Piggott, the Jockey, were in the room reading American papers. Piggott has been in Russia several years.

PRINCE IMPERIAL SOLD FOR $12,000.

Buffalo, N. Y., September 4.—One of the most important sales of the year was consummated without any flourish of trumpets today, when Prince Imperial was transferred to J. S. McDonald, acting for R. F. Little of New York. The price is said to have been $12,000.

In commenting on the sale John Marklein said that the reason he let the coll go was because he was anxious to give him every opportunity, knowing that he is a good racer. Marklein owns Dixoletta, the dam of Prince Imperial, also a yearling brother to him that is said to hold out greater promise than did Prince Imperial at the same age, Prince Imperial will be shipped to New York tomorrow.

HILDRETH ON KING JAMES' DEFEAT.

New York, September 4.—Sam Hildreth is of the opinion that either Powers or Dugan would have given King James a better ride in the Twin City Handicap than the Plaudit colt got from Scoville. King James was ready to go the entire route notwithstanding his long let-up. Mr. Hildreth declares, He further avers that King James can work a faster nile and a quarter than Olambala ran in the Twin City. Mr. Hilreth says that Scoville, while alert at the barrier, does not appear to have sufficient bodily strength to make a robust horse of the King James type do his best. Scoville shows to advantage on fast free runners.

The Portland Plate, Alexandra Plate, Rous Plate and Scarborough Stakes will be the principal races of Thursday. The first two closed for entries August 3, and the weights have not been received in this country as yet. The Rous Plate is for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, and Mr. Belmont's Merry Task, Mr. Carroll's Washoe, Mr. Keene's Lyndin, Metaphor and Infatuation and Mr. Whitney's Hamburg—Blue Girl colt and Hamburg—York-ville Belle colt are among its nominations. The Scarborough Stakes is for three-year-olds at a mile, and Mr. Keene's Wedding Bells, Bsperanto and Wamba and Mr. Whittery's Field Daisy The Chonester Stakes for three-year-olds and Park Hill Stakes for three-year-old fillies are the big races of Friday. No Americans figure in any of these, except the Prince of Wales Nursery. Many other stakes of recent closing are on the meeting's program, in which the American owners have no doubt made entries. Besides the racing, the Doncaster Sales of yearlings are of high interest. The most select breeding studes of England sell their year-lings here and, with buyers from all racing countries present in eager competition for choice offerings, the highest prices of the year are usually realized.

Winner—Ch. f, by Star Shoot—Intrepidity (trained by W. B. Jennings).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving Intrinsic drew out in the first stride and won all the way decisively. Helen Carroll lapped the leader for three furlongs, then quit badly and sulked under punishment, but came on again into a good and willing second when Glass laid his whip down. Glen Helen ran in forward pursuit of the pacemaker to the stretch and tired badly. Zephyr was always decisively outpaced. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid. Scratched—84083 Follie Levy, 108; 0 Em, 94.

Overweights—Zephyr, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Planudes—Salama (trained by R. Colston).

Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won cantering; second and third driving. Waldo was in closest pursuit of the pacemaker in the early running, then drew out when straightened for home and won as his rider pleased. Dalmatian, away slowly, shuffled back and outrum for three furlongs, closed an immense gap into a cyclonic and close up second in a high-close effort. Grasmere, away very badly, made up ground rapidly into third place and stayed there under pressure, but finished swerving and suiking under punishment. Chickasaw, well up from the start, steadily involved position in the stretch and just failed to get up for third place in a good race. The Fad outbroke and outpaced the others, but on sufferance as far as W was concerned, to the stretch, where he legan to tire badly and is a fast gen-stayer on a dr; ..., out can run farther in mud. Turf Star ran prominently for half of the journey, though never dangerous, and quit badly in the last quarter. Angerona, also well up early, retired in the stretch. Perry Johnson loomed up momentarily and dropped to the rear again.

Winner—Br. g, by Clifford—Black Venus (trained by A. G. Blakeley).

Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Blackford, from a flatfooted inside start, was shuffled back repeatedly on the first turn and in the early running, was then forced to come on the outside on the far turn, but steadily improved his position and got up in the last stride. Rockstone, luckly and forwardly placed throughout, tired at the finish. Bird of Flight II., reserved in forward pursuit for half of the journey, loomed up like winning midway of the stretch and just failed under an inadequate finish. Acrobat outbroke and outpaced the others for six and a half furlongs and tired in the closing strides. Campaigner, well up from the start, made a fast closing rush and is extra good. St. Joseph, palpably short, ran in nearest attendance for six furlongs and tired. Miss Catesby, nearly left, closed a gap in the last half and is a stayer. The Peer was always outpaced. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ranald—Lady Cushman (trained by N. Byer).

Went to post at 5:01. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same, kacquet ran into nearest and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker from a poor start and drew out slowly, but surely, in the final hundred yards. De Mund outbroke and outpaced the others to the last sixteenth before he began to tire and was a game second. Dreamer was a close up third throughout, and was impeded by De Mund in the last furlong or he might have won. Harlem Maid ran forwardly all the way. Question Mark, badly outpaced from the start, was never dangerous and the pace was fast for him. Woodcraft trailed far back for half of the journey and closed up well near the end. Comedienne ran well up to the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Galore—Busy Maid (trained by W. F. Presgrave).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same. Busy was off forwardly, but was not hurried and followed the leaders to the stretch turn, then closed up gamely under a drive and got up in the last few strides. Hanbridge met with some early interference, but finished with a great burst of speed and would have won in a few more strides. Plaudmore was much used in racing with Charlie Eastman and Lady Irma and tired in the last furlong. Lady Irma tired in the final citye. Booger Red and Royal Tourist looked big and fat. Charlie Eastman and Royal Onyx showed speed, but failed to stay.

SAVAGE TRAITS OF FAMOUS RACERS.

Famous race horses, like famous people, are often eccentric in their behavior, and there have been many cases in England of celebrated animals that have turned "savage." Otto Madden, the famous jockey, who only a few seasons ago won the Detby on the 100 to 1 chance, Jeddah, was violently "savaged" by a horse at Brighton races. He was riding centre down to the post for the Worthing Plate, when a horse called Marigoid IV, overtook limit, dragged by a horse at Brighton races. He was riding the retrier shakes a rat. The jockey of Marigoid IV, who had himself been unseated, used his whip freely on the brute's head to make him release Madden, and other jockeys coming to his assistance, Marigoid IV, was eventually beaten off. Madden returned to the paddock bleeding from a wound on the throat, which had to have several stitches put into it, and it was some time before he was able to ride again. Sweet Sounds, in spite of his name, was an irrectain like a lion, the result to the unlucky lad being a month in the hospital.

Sweet Sounds, in spite of his hame, was an irrectain like a lion, the result to the unlucky lad being a month in the hospital.

Good Morning was another of the ugly-tempered sort. Once he bit his leading rein clean through ant, and shook him feroectously. Ladas, another sort. Once he bit his leading rein clean through ant, and shook him feroetously. Ladas, another famous race horse, was perfectly quiet under ordinary cleumstances, but for some reason he had a great dislike for ladies, and would "go for them paddock."

Biamond Jubilee was another famous horse that gave a good deal of trouble to its trainer owing to the vicelence of its likes and dislikes. He hated analy circumstances, and for some reason he had a great dislike for ladies, and would "go for them" if any members of the fair sex approached the many members of the violence of its likes and dislikes. He hated Mornington Cannon, the famous jockey, and on one occasion flew at him while exercising on Newmarket Heath. knocking him flying, and "Morny" would certainly have been killed if assistance had not been at hand. Years afterwards Cannon visited his stable, and the horse still remembered his old grudge, and attempted to "go for him" again directly he heard his old jockey's voice.

An old Irish steeplechase horse called Tornado, rather well known at one time, was a perfectly good-fempered horse, but he had a hatred of bicycles, and whenever he saw one he would try to put his forelegs through the wheels. For what reason nobody ever knew, for he never seemed to be some famous horses that race with obvious enjoyment have a rooted objection to being saddled, and will roll and lie on their backs when the time comes to prepare for the fray. Others throw themselves into an absolute state of frenzy if they feel the slightest drop of rain, while many others, perfectly normal in other respects, will only allow themselves to be groomed or fed by the same individual.

Prince of Tyre used to amuse himself by walking round and round his box on his hind legs. He would scrape all his bedding into a heap in the center of the floor, and then would slowly pound it to chaff. All sorts of ways were tried to break him of the habit, and eventually he found solace in the comerce of the face of the found of this sort, and he used to amuse himself by gnawing his friend's tall, which was consequently in a state of perpetua

WHITNEY HORSES UNPLACED IN ENGLAND.

London, Eng., September 4.—Harry Payne Whitney had two starters at Kempton Fark today, but neither placed. Littoral carried his colors in the Waterloo Selling Nursery Handicap of 250 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, distance five furlougs, which resulted as follows:

W. Forbes' Maggie May, br. f, by Mauzevin—Miss Nithsdale, 116
P. Nelke's Woodland Maid, b, f, by Galloping Lad—Foxglove, 110
Lord Carnarvon's Aye Aye, b, f, by Flying Lemur—Columbian, 118
Mr. Whitney's Seaeliff started in the Earlsfield

mur—Columbian, 118 and 118 arted in the Earlsfield Handicap of 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, distance one mile, the summary of which was as follows:

V. P. Misa's Spikenard, blk, or br. g, 3, by Santol—Spicebox II., 84

L. A. Wigan's Abergine, b. f, 4, by Islington —Umbrossa, 111

C. F. Young's Alaric, ch. c. 4, by Pride, dam by Victor Chief—Silver Wing, 84

H. P. WHITNEY ON THE WAY HOME.

London, Eng., September 4,—"There is one thing at any rate that you can and do beat us at." H. P. Whitney is quoted as saying to an Englishman yesterday when he departed on his return to America. "Your borse races are far more enjoyable than those of America or France, but then you have good sportsmen behind you. We Americans seem to be only beginning to tackle the sport in the right spirit. Whatever you have forgotten, you have not forgotten how to breed and train horses."
